JEAN LEON GEROME LECTURE AT CLEVELAND MUSEUM OF ART

The 19th century French painter and sculptor Jean Leon Gerome will be the subject of a lecture by Gerald Ackerman at The Cleveland Museum of Art, Wednesday, October 25 at 8:30 p.m. An academic realist who was born in 1824 and died in 1904, Gerome is best known for his paintings depicting historical genre scenes and the middle east.

Dr. Ackerman, Chairman of the Pomona College Art Department, has lectured and written extensively on Gerome and his most famous student Thomas Eakins.

This free lecture is at The Cleveland Museum of Art, Wednesday, October 25, at 8:30 p.m.
